

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Vinita Friends of Route 66 is a non-profit organization of volunteers working together to promote, enhance, perpetuate, and encourage the development of tourism, economic opportunities, and historic resources and landmarks along Historic Route 66. Be a part of celebrating and promoting America's Main Street through membership today!

Vinita Friends of Route 66 activities include fund raising, development of events, and economic development activities. Annual membership helps support these activities and provides members with recognition as a member, regular communication about efforts, volunteer opportunities, and voting rights outlined below.
